UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

-----X
TAURINA BONILLA PERALTA and SUSANA GEORGINA GUILLCA,
individually and on behalf of others similarly situated,

COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs,

COLLECTIVE ACTION UNDER 29 U.S.C. § 216(b)

-against-

DIVYA DRISHTI LLC (D/B/A LENOX SPA
& NAILS) and ARCHANA POKHREL
(A/K/A DAISY) ,

ECF Case

Defendants.

-----X

Plaintiffs Taurina Bonilla Peralta and Susana Georgina Guillca , individually and on behalf of others similarly situated (collectively, “Plaintiffs”), by and through their attorneys, Michael Faillace & Associates, P.C., upon their knowledge and belief, and as against Divya Drishti LLC (d/b/a Lenox Spa & Nails), (“Defendant Corporation”) and Archana Pokhrel (a/k/a Daisy), (“Individual Defendant”), (collectively, “Defendants”), allege as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiffs are former employees of Defendants Divya Drishti LLC (d/b/a Lenox Spa & Nails) and Archana Pokhrel (a/k/a Daisy).
2. Defendants own, operate, or control a nail salon, located at 1051 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10065 under the name “Lenox Spa & Nails”.
3. Upon information and belief, individual Defendant Archana Pokhrel (a/k/a Daisy), serve or served as owner, manager, principal, or agent of Defendant Corporation and, through this corporate entity, operates or operated the salon as a joint or unified enterprise.

4. Plaintiffs were employed as manicurists and pedicurists at the salon located at 1051 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10065.
5. Plaintiffs were ostensibly employed as manicurists and pedicurists. However, they were required to spend a considerable part of their work day performing non-tipped duties, including but not limited to cleaning the basement, mopping, sweeping, washing towels by hand, filling the products, cleaning windows, cutting aluminum papers and cleaning the bathrooms (hereafter the “non-tipped duties”).
6. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Plaintiffs worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate minimum wage and overtime compensation for the hours that they worked.
7. Rather, Defendants failed to maintain accurate recordkeeping of the hours worked and failed to pay Plaintiffs appropriately for any hours worked, either at the straight rate of pay or for any additional overtime premium.
8. Furthermore, Defendants repeatedly failed to pay Plaintiffs wages on a timely basis.
9. Defendants employed and accounted for Plaintiffs as manicurists and pedicurists in their payroll, but in actuality their duties required a significant amount of time spent performing the non-tipped duties alleged above.
10. Regardless, at all relevant times, Defendants paid Plaintiffs at a rate that was lower than the required tip-credit rate.
11. However, under both the FLSA and NYLL, Defendants were not entitled to take a tip credit because Plaintiffs’ non-tipped duties exceeded 20% of each workday, or 2 hours per day, whichever is less in each day. 12 N.Y. C.R.R. §146.
12. Upon information and belief, Defendants employed the policy and practice of disguising Plaintiffs’ actual duties in payroll records by designating them as manicurists and pedicurists instead of non-tipped employees. This allowed Defendants to avoid paying Plaintiffs at the minimum wage rate and enabled them to pay them at the tip-credit rate (which they still failed to do).

13. Defendants' conduct extended beyond Plaintiffs to all other similarly situated employees.

14. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiffs and other employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without providing the minimum wage and overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

15. Plaintiffs now bring this action on behalf of themselves, and other similarly situated individuals, for unpaid minimum and overtime wages pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. ("FLSA"), and for violations of the N.Y. Labor Law §§ 190 et seq. and 650 et seq. (the "NYLL"), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys' fees and costs.

16. Plaintiffs seek certification of this action as a collective action on behalf of themselves, individually, and all other similarly situated employees and former employees of Defendants pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

17. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question) and the FLSA, and supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiffs' state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

18. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) because all, or a substantial portion of, the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district, Defendants maintain their corporate headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants operate a nail salon located in this district. Further, Plaintiffs were employed by Defendants in this district.

PARTIES

Plaintiffs

19. Plaintiff Taurina Bonilla Peralta (“Plaintiff Bonilla” or “Ms. Bonilla”) is an adult individual residing in Queens County, New York.

20. Plaintiff Bonilla was employed by Defendants at Lenox Spa & Nails from approximately January 2019 until on or about May 13, 2019.

21. Plaintiff Susana Georgina Guillca (“Plaintiff Guillca” or “Ms. Guillca”) is an adult individual residing in Queens County, New York.

22. Plaintiff Guillca was employed by Defendants at Lenox Spa & Nails from approximately November 16, 2018 until on or about June 14, 2019.

Defendants

23. At all relevant times, Defendants owned, operated, or controlled a nail salon, located at 1051 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10065 under the name “Lenox Spa & Nails”.

24. Upon information and belief, Divya Drishti LLC (d/b/a Lenox Spa & Nails) is a domestic corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York. Upon information and belief, it maintains its principal place of business at 1051 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10065.

25. Defendant Archana Pokhrel (a/k/a Daisy) is an individual engaging (or who was engaged) in business in this judicial district during the relevant time period. Defendant Archana Pokhrel (a/k/a Daisy) is sued individually in her capacity as owner, officer and/or agent of Defendant Corporation. Defendant Archana Pokhrel (a/k/a Daisy) possesses operational control over Defendant Corporation, an ownership interest in Defendant Corporation, and controls significant functions of Defendant Corporation. She determines the wages and compensation of the employees of Defendants, including Plaintiffs, establishes the schedules of the employees, maintains employee records, and has the authority to hire and fire employees.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

Defendants Constitute Joint Employers

26. Defendants operate a nail salon located in the Upper East Side section of Manhattan in New York City.

27. Individual Defendant, Archana Pokhrel (a/k/a Daisy), possesses operational control over Defendant Corporation, possesses ownership interests in Defendant Corporation, and controls significant functions of Defendant Corporation.

28. Defendants are associated and joint employers, act in the interest of each other with respect to employees, pay employees by the same method, and share control over the employees.

29. Each Defendant possessed substantial control over Plaintiffs' (and other similarly situated employees') working conditions, and over the policies and practices with respect to the employment and compensation of Plaintiffs, and all similarly situated individuals, referred to herein.

30. Defendants jointly employed Plaintiffs (and all similarly situated employees) and are Plaintiffs' (and all similarly situated employees') employers within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. 201 et seq. and the NYLL.

31. In the alternative, Defendants constitute a single employer of Plaintiffs and/or similarly situated individuals.

32. Upon information and belief, Individual Defendant Archana Pokhrel (a/k/a Daisy) operates Defendant Corporation as either an alter ego of herself and/or fails to operate Defendant Corporation as an entity legally separate and apart from herself, by among other things:

- a) failing to adhere to the corporate formalities necessary to operate Defendant Corporation as a Corporation,
- b) defectively forming or maintaining the corporate entity of Defendant Corporation, by, amongst other things, failing to hold annual meetings or maintaining appropriate corporate records,

- c) transferring assets and debts freely as between all Defendants,
- d) operating Defendant Corporation for her own benefit as the sole or majority shareholder,
- e) operating Defendant Corporation for her own benefit and maintaining control over this corporation as a closed Corporation,
- f) intermingling assets and debts of her own with Defendant Corporation,
- g) diminishing and/or transferring assets of Defendant Corporation to avoid full liability as necessary to protect her own interests, and
- h) Other actions evincing a failure to adhere to the corporate form.

33. At all relevant times, Defendants were Plaintiffs' employers within the meaning of the FLSA and New York Labor Law. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiffs, controlled the terms and conditions of employment, and determined the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiffs' services.

34. In each year from 2018 to 2019, Defendants, both separately and jointly, had a gross annual volume of sales of not less than $500,000 (exclusive of excise taxes at the retail level that are separately stated).

35. In addition, upon information and belief, Defendants and/or their enterprise were directly engaged in interstate commerce. As an example, numerous items that were used in the salon on a daily basis are goods produced outside of the State of New York.

Individual Plaintiffs

36. Plaintiffs are former employees of Defendants who ostensibly were employed as manicurists and pedicurists. However, they spent over 20% of each shift performing the non-tipped duties described above.

37. Plaintiffs seek to represent a class of similarly situated individuals under 29 U.S.C. 216(b).

Plaintiff Taurina Bonilla Peralta

38. Plaintiff Bonilla was employed by Defendants from approximately January 2019 until on or about May 13, 2019.

39. Defendants ostensibly employed Plaintiff Bonilla as a manicurist and a pedicurist.

40. However, Plaintiff Bonilla was also required to spend a significant portion of her work day performing the non-tipped duties described above.

41. Although Plaintiff Bonilla ostensibly was employed as a manicurist and a pedicurist, she spent over 20% of each day performing non-tipped work throughout her employment with Defendants.

42. Plaintiff Bonilla regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as nail products and other supplies produced outside the State of New York.

43. Plaintiff Bonilla's work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

44. Throughout her employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Bonilla regularly worked in excess of 40 hours per week.

45. From approximately January 20, 2019 until on or about January 26, 2019, Plaintiff Bonilla worked from approximately 4:30 p.m. until on or about 8:30 p.m., 1 day a week and from approximately 12:00 p.m. until on or about 8:00 p.m., 3 days a week (typically 28 hours per week).

46. From approximately January 27, 2019 until on or about February 2019, Plaintiff Bonilla worked from approximately 10:00 a.m. until on or about 8:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m., 3 days a week (typically 30 to 33 hours per week).

47. From approximately March 2019 until on or about May 13, 2019, Plaintiff Bonilla worked from approximately 11:00 a.m. until on or about 9:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m., 3 days a week and from approximately 11:00 a.m. until on or about 8:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., 2 days a week (typically 48 to 52 hours per week).

48. Throughout her employment, Defendants paid Plaintiff Bonilla her wages in cash.

49. From approximately January 27, 2019 until on or about February 2019, Defendants paid Plaintiff Bonilla a fixed salary of $85 per day.
50. From approximately March 2019 until on or about May 13, 2019, Defendants paid Plaintiff Bonilla a fixed salary of $430 per week.
51. However, in one occasion, Defendants paid Plaintiff Bonilla a fixed salary of $500 per week for one week worked.
52. For approximately 5 days of work, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff Bonilla any wages for her work.
53. Plaintiff Bonilla's pay did not vary even when she was required to stay later or work a longer day than her usual schedule.
54. For example, Defendants required Plaintiff Bonilla to work an additional 30 minutes to one hour past her scheduled departure time every day, and did not pay her for the additional time she worked.
55. Defendants never granted Plaintiff Bonilla any breaks or meal periods of any kind.
56. Plaintiff Bonilla was never notified by Defendants that her tips were being included as an offset for wages.
57. Defendants did not account for these tips in any daily or weekly accounting of Plaintiff Bonilla's wages.
58. Defendants withheld a portion of Plaintiff Bonilla's tips; specifically, Defendants withheld all of her tips from one client.
59. No notification, either in the form of posted notices or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff Bonilla regarding overtime and wages under the FLSA and NYLL.
60. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Bonilla an accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

61. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff Bonilla, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Bonilla's primary language), of her rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

Plaintiff Susana Georgina Guillca

62. Plaintiff Guillca was employed by Defendants from approximately November 16, 2018 until on or about June 14, 2019.

63. Defendants ostensibly employed Plaintiff Guillca as a manicurist and a pedicurist.

64. However, Plaintiff Guillca was also required to spend a significant portion of her work day performing the non-tipped duties described above.

65. Although Plaintiff Guillca ostensibly was employed as a manicurist and a pedicurist, she spent over 20% of each day performing non-tipped work throughout her employment with Defendants.

66. Plaintiff Guillca regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as cosmetic products and other supplies produced outside the State of New York.

67. Plaintiff Guillca's work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

68. Throughout her employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Guillca regularly worked in excess of 40 hours per week.

69. From approximately November 16, 2018 until on or about December 2018, Plaintiff Guillca worked from approximately 1:00 p.m. until on or about 7:30 p.m., 1 day a week, from approximately 9:50 a.m. until on or about 8:30 p.m., 5 days a week, and from approximately 11:00 a.m. until on or about 7:00 p.m., one extra day two weeks per month (typically 60.25 to 68.25 hours per week).

70. From approximately January 2019 until on or about June 14, 2019, Plaintiff Guillca worked from approximately 9:50 a.m. until on or about 8:30 p.m., 3 days per week, from approximately 9:50 a.m. until on or about 9:00 p.m., 2 days per week, and from approximately 10:00 a.m. until on or about 7:00 p.m., one extra day one week per month (typically 54.57 to 63.57 hours per week).

71. Throughout her employment, Defendants paid Plaintiff Guillca her wages in cash.

72. From approximately November 16, 2018 until on or about June 14, 2019, Defendants paid Plaintiff Guillca $10.00 per hour for all her hours worked.

73. Plaintiff Guillca's pay did not vary even when she was required to stay later or work a longer day than her usual schedule.

74. For example, Defendants required Plaintiff Guillca to work an additional 1 hours past her scheduled departure time 2 or 3 days per week, and did not pay her for the additional time she worked.

75. Defendants never granted Plaintiff Guillca any breaks or meal periods of any kind.

76. Plaintiff Guillca was never notified by Defendants that her tips were being included as an offset for wages.

77. Defendants did not account for these tips in any daily or weekly accounting of Plaintiff Guillca's wages.

78. Although Plaintiff Guillca was required to keep track of her time in some occasions, the notebook that Defendants used to record her time, did not accurately reflect her actual hours worked.

79. No notification, either in the form of posted notices or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff Guillca regarding overtime and wages under the FLSA and NYLL.

80. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Guillca an accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

81. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff Guillca, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Guillca's primary language), of her rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

Defendants' General Employment Practices

82. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiffs (and all similarly situated employees) to work in excess of 40 hours a week without paying them appropriate minimum wage and overtime compensation as required by federal and state laws.

83. Plaintiffs were victims of Defendants' common policy and practices which violate their rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by, inter alia, not paying them the wages they were owed for the hours they worked.

84. Defendants' pay practices resulted in Plaintiffs not receiving payment for all their hours worked, and resulted in Plaintiffs' effective rate of pay falling below the required minimum wage rate.

85. Defendants habitually required Plaintiffs to work additional hours beyond their regular shifts but did not provide them with any additional compensation.

86. Defendants required Plaintiffs and all other manicurists and pedicurists to perform general non-tipped tasks in addition to their primary duties as manicurists and pedicurists.

87. Plaintiffs and all similarly situated employees, ostensibly were employed as tipped employees by Defendants, although their actual duties included a significant amount of time spent performing the non-tipped duties outlined above.

88. Plaintiffs' duties were not incidental to their occupation as tipped workers, but instead constituted entirely unrelated general salon work with duties, including the non-tipped duties described above.

89. Plaintiffs and all other tipped workers were paid at a rate that was lower than the lower tip-credit rate by Defendants.

90. However, under state law, Defendants were not entitled to a tip credit because the tipped worker's and Plaintiffs' non-tipped duties exceeded 20% of each workday (or 2 hours a day, whichever is less) (12 N.Y.C.R.R. § 146).

91. New York State regulations provide that an employee cannot be classified as a tipped employee on any day in which he or she has been assigned to work in an occupation in which tips are not customarily received. (12 N.Y.C.R.R. §§137-3.3 and 137-3.4). Similarly, under federal regulation 29 C.F.R. §531.56(e), an employer may not take a tip credit for any employee time if that time is devoted to a non-tipped occupation.

92. In violation of federal and state law as codified above, Defendants classified Plaintiffs and other tipped workers as tipped employees, and paid them at a rate that was lower than the lower tip-credit rate when they should have classified them as non-tipped employees and paid them at the minimum wage rate.

93. Defendants failed to inform Plaintiffs who received tips that Defendants intended to take a deduction against Plaintiffs' earned wages for tip income, as required by the NYLL before any deduction may be taken.

94. Defendants failed to inform Plaintiffs who received tips, that their tips were being credited towards the payment of the minimum wage.

95. Defendants failed to maintain a record of tips earned by Plaintiffs who worked as manicurists and pedicurists for the tips they received.

96. Defendants willfully disregarded and purposefully evaded recordkeeping requirements of the FLSA and NYLL by failing to maintain accurate and complete timesheets and payroll records.

97. Defendants paid Plaintiffs their wages in cash.

98. Defendants failed to post at the workplace, or otherwise provide to employees, the required postings or notices to employees regarding the applicable wage and hour requirements of the FLSA and NYLL.

99. Upon information and belief, these practices by Defendants were done willfully to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiffs (and similarly situated individuals) worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiffs properly for their full hours worked.

100. Defendants engaged in their unlawful conduct pursuant to a corporate policy of minimizing labor costs and denying employees compensation by knowingly violating the FLSA and NYLL.

101. Defendants' unlawful conduct was intentional, willful, in bad faith, and caused significant damages to Plaintiffs and other similarly situated former workers.

102. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and other employees with accurate wage statements at the time of their payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

103. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and other employees, at the time of hiring and on or before February 1 of each subsequent year, a statement in English and the employees' primary language, containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by New York Labor Law §195(1).

FLSA COLLECTIVE ACTION CLAIMS

104. Plaintiffs bring their FLSA minimum wage, overtime compensation, and liquidated damages claims as a collective action pursuant to FLSA Section 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), on behalf of all similarly situated persons (the “FLSA Class members”), i.e., persons who are or were employed by Defendants or any of them, on or after the date that is three years before the filing of the complaint in this case (the “FLSA Class Period”).

105. At all relevant times, Plaintiffs and other members of the FLSA Class were similarly situated in that they had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and have been subject to Defendants’ common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay them the required minimum wage, overtime pay at a one and one-half their regular rates for work in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek under the FLSA, and willfully failing to keep records under the FLSA.

106. The claims of Plaintiffs stated herein are similar to those of the other employees.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE MINIMUM WAGE PROVISIONS OF THE FLSA

107. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

108. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were Plaintiffs’ employers within the meaning of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 203(d). Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiffs (and the FLSA Class Members), controlled the terms and conditions of their employment, and determined the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for their employment.

109. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were engaged in commerce or in an industry or activity affecting commerce.

110. Defendants constitute an enterprise within the meaning of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 203 (r-s).

111. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs (and the FLSA Class members) at the applicable minimum hourly rate, in violation of 29 U.S.C. § 206(a).

112. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs (and the FLSA Class members) at the applicable minimum hourly rate was willful within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 255(a).

113. Plaintiffs (and the FLSA Class members) were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE OVERTIME PROVISIONS OF THE FLSA

114. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

115. Defendants, in violation of 29 U.S.C. § 207(a)(1), failed to pay Plaintiffs (and the FLSA Class members) overtime compensation at a rate of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for each hour worked in excess of forty hours in a work week.

116. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs (and the FLSA Class members), overtime compensation was willful within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 255(a).

117. Plaintiffs (and the FLSA Class members) were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE NEW YORK MINIMUM WAGE ACT

118. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

119. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were Plaintiffs' employers within the meaning of the N.Y. Lab. Law §§ 2 and 651. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiffs, controlled the terms and conditions of their employment, and determined the rates and methods of any compensation in exchange for their employment.

120. Defendants, in violation of NYLL § 652(1) and the supporting regulations of the New York State Department of Labor, paid Plaintiffs less than the minimum wage.

121. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs the minimum wage was willful within the meaning of N.Y. Lab. Law § 663.

122. Plaintiffs were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE OVERTIME PROVISIONS

OF THE NEW YORK STATE LABOR LAW

123. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

124. Defendants, in violation of N.Y. Lab. Law § 190 et seq., and supporting regulations of the New York State Department of Labor, failed to pay Plaintiffs overtime compensation at rates of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for each hour worked in excess of forty hours in a work week.

125. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs overtime compensation was willful within the meaning of N.Y. Lab. Law § 663.

126. Plaintiffs were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE NOTICE AND RECORDKEEPING

REQUIREMENTS OF THE NEW YORK LABOR LAW

127. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

128. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs with a written notice, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiffs' primary language), containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by NYLL §195(1).

129. Defendants are liable to each Plaintiff in the amount of $5,000, together with costs and attorneys' fees.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE WAGE STATEMENT PROVISIONS

OF THE NEW YORK LABOR LAW

130. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

131. With each payment of wages, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs with an accurate statement listing each of the following: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL 195(3).

132. Defendants are liable to each Plaintiff in the amount of $5,000, together with costs and attorneys' fees.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE TIMELY PAYMENT PROVISIONS

OF THE NEW YORK LABOR LAW

133. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all paragraphs above as though set forth fully herein.

134. Defendants did not pay Plaintiffs on a regular weekly basis, in violation of NYLL §191.

135. Defendants are liable to each Plaintiff in an amount to be determined at trial.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court enter judgment against Defendants by:

(a) Designating this action as a collective action and authorizing prompt issuance of notice pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) to all putative class members apprising them of the pendency of this action, and permitting them to promptly file consents to be Plaintiffs in the FLSA claims in this action;

(b) Declaring that Defendants violated the minimum wage provisions of, and associated rules and regulations under, the FLSA as to Plaintiffs and the FLSA Class members;

(c) Declaring that Defendants violated the overtime wage provisions of, and associated rules and regulations under, the FLSA as to Plaintiffs and the FLSA Class members;

(d) Declaring that Defendants violated the recordkeeping requirements of, and associated rules and regulations under, the FLSA with respect to Plaintiffs' and the FLSA Class members' compensation, hours, wages, and any deductions or credits taken against wages;

(e) Declaring that Defendants' violations of the provisions of the FLSA were willful as to Plaintiffs and the FLSA Class members;

(f) Awarding Plaintiffs and the FLSA Class members damages for the amount of unpaid minimum wage, overtime compensation, and damages for any improper deductions or credits taken against wages under the FLSA as applicable;

(g) Awarding Plaintiffs and the FLSA Class members liquidated damages in an amount equal to 100% of their damages for the amount of unpaid minimum wage and overtime compensation, and damages for any improper deductions or credits taken against wages under the FLSA as applicable pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b);

(h) Declaring that Defendants violated the minimum wage provisions of, and rules and orders promulgated under, the NYLL as to Plaintiffs;

- (i) Declaring that Defendants violated the overtime wage provisions of, and rules and orders promulgated under, the NYLL as to Plaintiffs;
- (j) Declaring that Defendants violated the timely payment provisions of the NYLL as to Plaintiffs;
- (k) Declaring that Defendants violated the notice and recordkeeping requirements of the NYLL with respect to Plaintiffs' compensation, hours, wages and any deductions or credits taken against wages;
- (l) Declaring that Defendants' violations of the provisions of the NYLL were willful as to Plaintiffs;
- (m) Awarding Plaintiffs damages for the amount of unpaid minimum wage and overtime compensation, and for any improper deductions or credits taken against wages as applicable
- (n) Awarding Plaintiffs damages for Defendants' violation of the NYLL notice and recordkeeping provisions, pursuant to NYLL §§198(1-b), 198(1-d);
- (o) Awarding Plaintiffs liquidated damages in an amount equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the total amount of minimum wage and overtime compensation shown to be owed pursuant to NYLL § 663 as applicable; and liquidated damages pursuant to NYLL § 198(3);
- (p) Awarding Plaintiffs and the FLSA Class members pre-judgment and post-judgment interest as applicable;
- (q) Awarding Plaintiffs and the FLSA Class members the expenses incurred in this action, including costs and attorneys' fees;
- (r) Providing that if any amounts remain unpaid upon the expiration of ninety days following issuance of judgment, or ninety days after expiration of the time to appeal and no appeal is then pending, whichever is later, the total amount of judgment shall automatically increase by fifteen percent, as required by NYLL § 198(4); and

(s) All such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
